Even the New York World is going back on Samuel Tilden. Has Tilden no friends left? If he has, let them stand up.
The Chicago Times calls Mr. Tilden the "Bloodless political cipher." Coming from an independent Democratic paper, the Democrats ought to accept it.
The New York Express, Democratic, says it don't want Tilden renominated for the reason that it don't want to contribute to the success of the Republican party.
To get rid of the thieves and professional loafers and dead-beats in Chicago, Mr.
O'Donnell, acting superintendent of police, has resorted to the plan of clubbing them out of the city. This may be a good thing for Chicago, but the neighboring towns and cities must suffer more or less from such a cause. These thieves should be arrested, tried, and if guilty, convicted and placed where they belong, and not allowed to infect other cities.
A table was prepared a short time ago by the Detroit Free Press, showing what chance a professional man has of catching anything when he goes fishing. Doctors have 7 chances in 50; lawyers 3 in 50; editors 10 in 50; bookkeepers 2 in 50; merchants 13 in 50; school teachers 1 in 50; but the small, bad boy with an old straw hat, bare footed, with broken suspenders and pants-loons worn through the knees and in the rear, has 49 chances out of 50.
The report that Bob Ingersoll intends to go over to the Democratic party if the Republicans won't lend him aid in releasing Bennett, is denied. A correspondent in the city who is not slow in catching a point, says "if the Colonel does intend to join the Democratic party for the purpose of using it to open the flood gates of obscene literature in the land, it shows more than all other things that he has a correct view of the general character, purposes, and aims of that party. The mere suggestion of such a 'reform' is condemnation enough."
If some one don't look after the Mitchell boom, there will not be enough left of it to make a respectable appearance. The papers deal with it gently, for it is a tender boom. The Madison Democrat takes upon itself to say that "it is plain to be seen that there is a well settled determination, among Wisconsin Democrats to make Colonel Vilas the standard bearer of the party in the approaching gubernatorial contest." Then the Democrat asserts that "the Democratic boom is unquestionably for Vilas," but says there is some enthusiasm for Mitchell, Bouck, and Cate, taking pains to omit the name of Bragg. Any boom the Democrats can get up won't dampen the zeal or blast the hopes of the Republicans.
The seventeenth volume of "Transactions of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society" has been issued and is now ready for distribution. It has been prepared by General George E. Bryant, Secretary of the Society, and is one of the most valuable reports of the doings of the Society yet published. It not only contains the constitution and the by-laws of the Society, the list of life members, Secretary's report, the annual proceedings and so on, but it contains fourteen addresses, among the number being that of President Hayes last September, besides a dozen or more valuable papers on various agricultural and horticultural topics. It also contains the report of farm products of Wisconsin for 1878.
ASSASSINATED AT LAST.
It is hardly to be wondered at that the Yazoo election difficulty has culminated in murder. Things have come to that pass in some portions of the South, and especially in Texas and Mississippi, that assassinations are a matter of course. It is a man who is not in full sympathy with the Democratic party, and presumes to run for office in opposition to a Democrat, he must either expect to lay down his life or see his property destroyed by fire. In Mississippi, under Democratic rule, this is the condition of things. This is local self-government in which the Democrats glory so much, and it is what they demand, and to insure them the right to control the polls and use the knife and the shot-gun with impunity on all those who dare to oppose a Democratic candidate, they want the election laws repealed, and the army prohibited from interfering with these cold-blooded murderers and mid-night assassinations.
The murder of Mr. Dixon is a part of the Mississippi plan. It is endorsed by the Democratic State Committee of Mississippi, and is countenanced by every Democratic paper in the North. They can't excuse it on the charge that Mr. Dixon was a hot-headed dangerous man, because he was not; and it was only a year or two ago when he was a regular Democratic candidate that the Democrats of Yazoo county extolled his virtues to the skies, and counted him one of the most upright, enterprising, and noble-minded men in that State.
But when he dared to run for the office of sheriff on an independent ticket, the Democrats loaded their

MEMPHIS.
Twenty-Seven New Cases of Fever and Four Deaths.
Memphis, Aug. 20.—There were twenty-seven new cases reported to the Board of Health to-day, and four deaths.
The Howard Association will to-morrow make an appeal for assistance.
SLAUGHTERED.
More Democratic Politics.—Henry M. Dixon, Independent candidate for Sheriff of Yazoo county, was shot in Yazoo City yesterday morning about half-past 9 o'clock and died in the evening at 4 o'clock. He was shot in the back by James H. Barksdale, Democratic candidate for Chancery Clerk. Dixon was coming down the east side of Main street, and, when he got opposite Hausman's saloon, he was hailed by Barksdale, who stood on the opposite side of the street with a double-barreled shotgun loaded with buckshot, ready cocked in his hand. Dixon never saw his slayer until he hailed him and was taken by surprise. Returned towards Barksdale, and Barksdale's friends claim that he attempted to draw his pistol, the only weapon he had. It is supposed that Dixon seeing that Barksdale was much better armed than he, attempted to get out of the way. As he did so Barksdale fired, putting four buckshot in his victim's back. After he was shot, Dixon turned and fired his pistol repeatedly, but without effect, at Barksdale. Dixon died internally, and died, surrounded by his family, at 4 o'clock. Barksdale was immediately arrested, and the case will be investigated to-morrow.
The immediate cause of the shooting was a bitter personal quarrel that originated in the building of a stair of the 25th of July. Prior to the present campaign both gentlemen stood well, and were friendly. Many were "down on" Dixon for the killing of Samuel Harrison, in Yazoo city a year or two ago.
Dixon leaves a most estimable wife and five children. Barksdale is the nephew of E. Barksdale, a prominent Democratic candidate for the United States Senate, and editor of the Jackson Clarion and Chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee. The Clarion at first endorsed the Yazoo building, but since the Rankin County building it has been silent in regard to both affairs. The Democrats in Yazoo will not be satisfied until they have secured a Greenback ticket, and an attempt is made to build it another trouble will arise.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Three years ago Congressmen Singleton, of Mississippi, who had just been re-elected to Congress for a third time, went to Captain H. M. Dixon, of Yazoo County, Miss., and told him very frankly that he was in a large measure responsible for his (Singleton's) success by his active and powerful efforts in behalf of the Democratic party, and asked what he could do for Dixon in Washington. Dixon replied, "Get my brother a clerkship in Washington." Singleton brought young Dixon, a man of capacity and of clerical tastes, to Washington, and being a member of the Committee on Appropriations, with influence, very easily got him a position in the Treasury Department, where he has since been employed in the mail room. Captain Dixon has since his mother and her minor children to Washington to live with the younger brother, and has corresponded with them regularly at brief intervals. The mother and brother have learned from his own letters of the "bulldozing" he has undergone, and have received from him descriptions of the attempts that have been made upon his life by individuals and by mobs because he persisted in being a candidate for Sheriff of Yazoo county. He wrote them a detailed account of what has appeared in full in three columns of the attack upon him by a mob three weeks ago, and the promise he made at the points of a dozen pistols, to withdraw his candidature.
It will soon be remembered that Dixon having been an ex-Confederate and a life long Democrat, was nominated as an independent candidate against the regular Democratic nominee. On Monday Mrs. Dixon received a letter from him, stating that as he had been assured by a great many people that they would stand by and see him through it he would run, and, as it appeared like cowardice for him to sneak out when threatened, he had decided to revoke and retract the promise he made under threats from the mob, and would, on Saturday last, announce in the Yazoo papers his determination to be a candidate. Nothing more was heard from him until this morning, until a telegram came announcing that he was murdered by Major Barksdale, a prominent Democrat and a candidate for office himself. At this writing no details have been received, but

SHERMAN'S SPEECH.
STENBENVILLE, Aug. 20.—Secretary Sherman arrived here this afternoon, accompanied by his private secretary. He was received by a large concourse of people and escorted to the hotel. At 8 o'clock Garra's Hall was filled to overflowing with an audience eager to hear Mr. Sherman on the question of finance. The hall was profusely decorated, and the motto "Ohio Welcomes the Next President" was prominent. Among the audience was Gen. Sam. Carey. He reviewed the financial question thoroughly, completely answering any point that could possibly be raised by the Greenbackers or Democrats.
SCHURZ AT CINCINNATI.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.—Hon. Carl Schurz addressed an audience numbering over 4,000 at Lookout House this evening. He began by reviewing the distressing consequences that the fiat-money apostles predicted in the event of resumption, and showed the fallacy of their argument. The speaker then reviewed the financial record of General Ewing, and explained the results of the success of the Ohio "idea", and the effect upon the industrial and commercial interests of the country, and said the aim of the Democracy, formerly to prevent resumption, is now to break down specie payments, by the substitution of treasury notes for national bank currency.
KILLED BY LIGHTNING.
RIPON, Aug. 20.—During a terrible storm this afternoon on Mackbro Prairie, eight miles southwest of Ripon, lightning struck a barn and instantly killed a young man named John Dinsmore, son of Luther Dinsmore. Wm. Miller, the richest farmer in this State, was in the barn at the time, and was knocked senseless. The barn, one horse and all the grain and hay were destroyed. It belonged to Mr. Hopkins, and was not insured.

THE HAZARDS.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Secretary of War says that the President has the application of the recently dismissed West Point cadets, asking to be restored. They express regret for the conduct which caused their dismissal, and promise never to be guilty of any offense contrary to the regulations of the academy. The Secretary says the probability is the young men will be restored and turned back, as in case of the other two who were dismissed.
SENTENCED.
MILWAUKEE, Aug. 20.—Charles Casper, ex-Clerk of the Municipal Court, was to-day sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs, and a total of over $500, or six months in the House of Correction. Casper went to jail, to await the decision of the Supreme Court on arguments for a new trial.
OBITUARY.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 20.—Henry J. Rogers, constructor of the first telegraph line between this city and Washington, died at his residence to-day, aged 63.
THE PRESIDENTIAL RATTLE.
Mr. Tilden's General Order Number One.
Aibany N. Y. Journal.
HEADQUARTERS TILDEN BOOM, Aug. 6. —To the Democracy of the United States:—I have this day appointed Iverni Waterson of Kentucky, acting Assistant Adjutant General and Chief of Staff. He will be obeyed and respected accordingly. State and county committees, in sending to these headquarters for moral forces, will please say whether they prefer to have them in coin or greenbacks, and if they would be willing to take the trade dollar at par.
All nincompoops who served in the last campaign, and who are absent, with or without leave, will report for duty immediately at the old place. Bring your Moody and Sankey hymn books and your little banners, on which are engraved "Reform is necessary," with you.
The proprietor of this boom trusts that his followers will see the necessity of promptly changing the subject, and talk about the weather and Sara Vanderbilt whenever any one inquires of them. "How about those silver dispatches?" For mercy's sake, don't argue. The only safe course is to change the subject.
If any of you should happen to run across Mr. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, give him my love and assurance that he is one of nature's own noblemen and a born Vice President. If he indicates that he doesn't agree with you, sit down on him hard—the harder the better. Never forget that a still hunt in the dark is infinitely to be preferred to any other sort of tactics. Work hard, pull your wires, spread your nets, keep shady and keep me well posted.
Get in the habit of alluding to me as a victim and a martyr, and see to it that democratic poets write unprompted sonnets for the newspapers of which I am the inspiration and the theme. I'll pay for all such productions at the rate of ten moral forces a sonnet.
If you are ever asking in the midst of a stump speech in regard to my income tax or my record during the war pretend not to hear the loathsome interloper, or if that is impossible try boldly "I'm coming to those points in a few moments," and then be mighty sure you don't come to them.
S. J. Tilden, Sole Proprietor of the Tilden Boom.

Ladies

Do you want a pure, blooming complexion? If so, a few applications of Hagan's MAGNOLIA BALM will gratify you to your heart's content. It does away with Saltness, Redness, Pimples, Blotches, and all diseases and imperfections of the skin. It overcomes the flushed appearance of heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes a lady of THIRTY appear but TWENTY; and so natural, gradual, and perfect are its effects, that it is impossible to detect its application.

I've been there, an' I'm posted, I am. I'm the best posted man this side o' Denver, an' ye can't play it very low down on me, much."

"Do you doubt my word, sir?"

"No I don't doubt your word; but if ye'd put a little more solid stuff into that yer yarn I'd be more likely to take stock in yer yarns."

"My friend, you are attempting to beguile me. I fear that you are imposing upon a stranger in a strange land. I am not accustomed to your peculiar manners and customs; and you should not take advantage of me in this abrupt and unceremonious manner."

"I thought ye 'lowed ye'd been there."

"Where?"

"In Shyan."

"Cheyenne! Not at all. I never saw the place. I thought you understood from the first that I was a minister to Siam."

"What! Siam! I swear, I take it all back, stranger. I throw up my hands. Shake, stranger, an' we'll call it square."

"Shyan—Siam. They do sound alike, don't they?"

"Where?"

"Cheyenne! Not at all. I never saw the place. I thought you understood from the first that I was a minister to Siam."

"What! Siam! I swear, I take it all back, stranger. I throw up my hands. Shake, stranger, an' we'll call it square."
